

ORSC Virtual Fundamentals : Foundational Coach Training Workshop

18th – 19th June 2022

BERLOT GROUP
Coaching Teams. Changing Cultures

The Virtual ORSC Fundamentals Course is designed to accommodate the current changes in our world and to equip you with coach training skills in a virtual setting.

The Organisation and Relationship Systems Coaching (ORSC) Fundamentals course explores a ground breaking model for coaching teams, families, couples and organisations. Whether your practice area is personal coaching, family therapy or business coaching, the ORSC Model will change the way you work. The course is fully supported to be delivered by qualified ORSC leaders.

The program includes the following:

- 2 full days of Virtual Live experiential sessions delivered on Zoom
- The ORSC Student kit is fully supported with eLearning, pre and post-session work and all appropriate learning material
- ORSC Fundamentals is an ICF Accredited Coach Training Program. You will receive an ICF accredited certificate upon completion
- You will earn 12 CCEs upon completion of the program

Course Outcomes You Will Learn :

- To guide your clients to establish or design their partnerships that they are better able to address their challenges
- How to establish boundaries and limitations for your engagements while focusing on the common interests of your clients
- How to work with toxic behaviour that naturally occurs in all partnerships and teams and learn how to work with conflict so that you may help your clients align around common issues and move forwards after conflict
- How to help your clients reveal the roles and positions each team member holds during times of conflict or around particular topics, that will help them garner deeper insights that can direct their future growth
- How to craft a narrative with your client that resonates deeply and helps them plot a course for change

Who Should Attend :

- Experienced coaches who want to develop a new market niche - coaching relationship systems in their industry of choice
- Personal, executive and organisational coaches who will benefit from an effective relationship systems approach to working with groups
- Allied professionals already engaged in working with groups, teams and partnerships: mediators, lawyers, couples and family therapists
- OD consultants, HR professionals, financial planners or anyone who relies upon relationships to drive their business

Email us on | info@berlotgroup.com